

Job Title: Sound Engineer Team Lead

Job Description:

The Calvary Tucson sound engineer is responsible for the operation, maintenance and setup of the EAST main sanctuary sound system as well as oversee all other areas at both campuses involving sound amplification. The engineer must be proficient in quality audio mixing of Calvary Tucson worship teams, the teaching pastor and general troubleshooting. The position involves sound support of main services, weddings, funerals and special events as determined by the pastoral overseer.

Hours / Week: Full Time Salary

Salary: Experience Based, start $48K+

Benefits: Medical, Dental, Vacation

Pastoral Overseer: Scott Billings

Primary Responsibilities include, but not limited to:

Minimum 15 hours/week

- EAST Main Service Start Times
 - Saturday, 2:30PM-7:45PM
 - Sunday, 7:00AM-12:30PM
 - Wednesday, 3:30PM-7:45PM
- Record all services to USB flash drive on mixer board and upload to shared Google Drive folder

Remaining hours

- Support other church events such as Pastor's Conference, Resurrection Celebration, weddings, funerals, Calvary Christian School holiday plays, associated concerts and other events as needed
- Team building and training of additional volunteer sound board operators
- Design, repair, maintenance, installation of equipment for both campuses as needed
- Maintain cleanliness / organizing media rooms / sound booths / storage areas
- Support existing media team staff with projects and activities

Required Proficiencies:

- Minimum associates degree in audio engineering or equivalent experience
- Highly Motivated to Learn and Serve
- Mechanical/Electrical Skills for Repair / Install of Audio Equipment
- Clear Communication
- Digital board operation, routing and preset setup
- Audio Troubleshooting
- Recording and Audio Post-Production Expertise
- Mic placement, feedback control, EQ, compression, gating, gain staging, crossover, speaker delays, white noise / system tuning, audio system design, wireless device setup, soldering and cable installation

Recommended Spiritual Gifting(s): Leadership, Service, Administration